20 COMES NOW, the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel, 21 Karen P. Hewitt, United States Attorney, and Luella M. Caldito, Assistant United States Attorney, 22 hereby files its Response in Opposition to Defendant's above-referenced Motions. This Response is 23 based upon the files and records of this case.

25 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

26 On October 30, 2007, a federal grand jury in the Southern District of California returned an 27 Indictment charging ("Defendant") with Deported Alien Found in the United States, in violation of 28 Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326. The Indictment further alleged that Defendant had been

07CR2971-H

1 removed from the United States subsequent to November 12, 2003.

2 II

3 STATEMENT OF FACTS

4 A. THE INSTANT OFFENSE

5 On August 7, 2007, at approximately 7:40 p.m., Border Patrol Agent Evelyn Boresoff was 6 performing linewatch duties in a location known as “Sony” and in the Imperial Beach area. Agent
7 Boresoff saw two individuals running north through an empty dirt lot behind a convenience store.
8 Earlier in the shift, a remote video surveillance system operator observed two males jumping the 9 secondary fence in an area known as “Truck Lot.” This area was west of Agent Boresoff’s position
10 and approximately 500 yards north of the United States/Mexico international border and a quarter mile 11 west of the Otay Mesa Port of Entry. The two individuals were not found.

12 When Agent Boresoff arrived at the convenience store, she noticed that the two individuals
13 appeared nervous and turned away as they saw her approach the convenience store. Agent Boresoff
14 approached the two individuals and identified herself as a Border Patrol agent. Agent Boresoff
15 conducted a field immigration interview. One individual claimed to be a citizen of Mexico with no 16 immigration documents that would allow him to enter or remain in the United States. The other 17 individual, defendant Sanchez-Marquez, spoke in English and claimed to be a United States citizen.
18 However, when Agent Boresoff asked Defendant if he had any form of identification, he responded 19 in the negative.

20 Agent Boresoff requested a records check on Defendant via her service radio. The records
21 check was inconclusive. Consequently, Defendant was taken to Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station 22 for further investigation. At the station, Defendant’s fingerprints were entered into the Department of 23 Homeland Security’s processing system, which identified Defendant as a previously deported alien.
24 Additionally, further records checks revealed Defendant’s criminal and immigration history.

25 Defendant was arrested and at approximately 11:21 p.m., Defendant was advised of his Miranda
26 rights. Defendant acknowledged and waived his rights. In a post-Miranda interview, Defendant 27 admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico without any immigration documents that would 28 allow him to enter or remain in the United States. Defendant further stated that he was traveling to 1 Nevada to visit his mother.

2 B. DEFENDANT'S IMMIGRATION HISTORY

3 Defendant is a citizen of Mexico who was ordered deported by an Immigration Judge on or 4 about May 13, 1997. Defendant was last removed from the United States to Mexico on 5 August 3, 2007.

7 ARGUMENT

8 A. Motion to Compel Discovery and Preserve Evidence

9 The United States has and will continue to fully comply with its discovery obligations. To date,
10 the United States has produced 34 pages of discovery to Defendant's counsel, along with a DVD
11 recording of Defendant's post-arrest interview. Counsel believes that all discovery disputes can be 12 resolved amicably and informally in this case. In view of the below-stated position of the United States 13 concerning discovery, it is respectfully requested that no orders compelling specific discovery by the 14 United States be made at this time. The Government has no objection to the preservation of evidence 15 for a reasonable time period.

16 1. Brady Information

17 The United States is well aware of and will continue to perform its duty under Brady v.
18 Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976), to disclose exculpatory
19 evidence within its possession that is material to the issue of guilt or punishment. Defendant, however, 20 is not entitled to all evidence known or believed to exist which is, or may be, favorable to the accused,
21 or which pertains to the credibility of the United States' case. As stated in United States v. Gardner, 22 611 F.2d 770 (9th Cir. 1980), it must be noted that "the prosecution does not have a constitutional duty
23 to disclose every bit of information that might affect the jury's decision; it need only disclose
24 information favorable to the defense that meets the appropriate standard of materiality." Id. at 774-775 25 (citation omitted).

26 The United States will turn over evidence within its possession which could be used to properly 27 impeach a witness who has been called to testify.

28 Although the United States will provide conviction records, if any, which could be used to

1 impeach a witness, the United States is under no obligation to turn over the criminal records of all 2 witnesses. United States v. Taylor, 542 F.2d 1023, 1026 (8th Cir. 1976). When disclosing such 3 information, disclosure need only extend to witnesses the United States intends to call in its case-in-
4 chief. United States v. Gering, 716 F.2d 615, 621 (9th Cir. 1983); United States v. Angelini, 607 F.2d 5 1305, 1309 (9th Cir. 1979).

6 Finally, the United States will continue to comply with its obligations pursuant to United States
7 v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991).

8 2. Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence

9 The United States will disclose, in advance of trial, the general nature of any “other bad acts”
10 evidence that the United States intends to introduce at trial pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 11 404(b).

12 3. Request for Preservation of Evidence

13 As stated above, the United States will preserve all evidence to which the Defendants are 14 entitled pursuant to the relevant discovery rules. The United States also has no opposition to a 15 preservation order, should Defendant seek one from this Court.

16 4. Defendant’s Statements

17 The United States recognizes its obligation under Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 18 (“Rules”) 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B) to provide to Defendant any written statements and the 19 substance of Defendant’s oral statements. The United States has produced all of Defendant’s 20 statements that are known to the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney at this time. If the United States
21 discovers additional oral or written statements that require disclosure under the relevant Rules, such 22 statements will be promptly provided to Defendant.

23 5. Tangible Objects

24 The United States has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E) in allowing 25 Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy tangible objects that 26 are within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the preparation of 27 Defendant’s defense or is intended for use by the United States as evidence during its case-in-chief at 28 trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The United States, however, need not produce

1 rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. See United States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th Cir. 1984).

2 The Government will allow defense counsel to inspect Defendant's A-file on a date mutually 3 agreeable to both parties. Also, a copy of Defendant's deport tape will be produced in discovery upon 4 receipt by Government counsel.

5 6. Expert Witnesses

6 The United States will comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(G) and provide Defendant with a written 7 summary of any expert testimony that the United States intends to use during its case-in-chief at trial
8 under Federal Rules of Evidence 702, 703 or 705.

9 7. Witness Addresses

10 The United States objects to this request as overbroad, unnecessary, and unsupported. Through 11 discovery, Defendant has the names of the officers and agents involved in her arrest. In addition, the 12 United States will provided Defendant with a list of witnesses it intends to call in its trial 13 memorandum. The United States objects to the request for the name and address of witnesses who will 14 not be called by the Government at trial as overbroad and irrelevant.

15 8. Jencks Act Material

16 The United States will comply with its discovery obligations under the Jencks Act, Title 18, 17 United States Code, Section 3500, and as incorporated in Rule 26.2.

18 9. Informants and Cooperating Witnesses

19 At this time, the United States is not aware of any confidential informants or cooperating
20 witnesses involved in this case. The Government must generally disclose the identity of informants 21 where: (1) the informant is a material witness, and (2) the informant's testimony is crucial to the 22 defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 59 (1957). If there is a confidential informant
23 involved in this case, the Court may, in some circumstances, be required to conduct an in camera
24 inspection to determine whether disclosure of the informant's identity is required under Roviaro. See 25 United States v. Ramirez-Rangel, 103 F.3d 1501, 1508 (9th Cir. 1997). If the United States determines 26 that there is a confidential informant or cooperating witness who is a material witness with evidence
27 helpful to the defense or essential to a fair determination in this case, the United States will either
28 disclose the identity of the informant or submit the informant's identity to the Court for an in camera

1 inspection.

2 10. Residual Request

3 The United States has complied with Defendant's residual request for prompt compliance with 4 Defendant's discovery requests and will continue to do so.

5 B. Motion For Leave To File Additional Motions

6 The Government opposes this request unless the motion is based upon newly discovered
7 evidence not available to Defendant at the time of the motion hearing.

8 IV

9 CONCLUSION

10 For the foregoing reasons, the United States requests that Defendant's Motions be denied 11 where opposed.
